

I OWE YOU
AMY SKY- MARK MASRI

For every star I've learned to name for every valley where I've staked my claim for all you did and all you do
I owe you

For every burden I can bear for mountains I have climbed cause you were there I hope you know
I know the truth
I owe you
I owe you

And every day I rise to greet the sun Because I've lived to see another one some how just words don't seem enough to thank you- how I thank you for your love

For every fall I took with grace For standing up to every fear I face When my courage failed your faith came through I owe you
I owe you
I owe you
